Sting

Point North

No one wants to brag about their bad side
Drinking up the love for what they're not Cause life is like a series full of highlights
Where everybody's puttin up a front

I should've seen what
Everyone told me
To run from

Staring through the glass, it's not what it seems
Playing with fire
It's so violent
We flew so close to the sun
We burnt off our wings
Such a poisonous sting
For all of us
For all of us

Used to be somebody now we're silent
Screaming while our mouths are stapled shut
It looked so fuckin good I had to try it
Now I don't think I'll ever get enough

Cause they got fake money and cars
Say they all fuckin with stars
But when they got nobody left
Who gonna clean up the mess

Staring through the glass, it's not what it seems
Playing with fire (playin with fire)
It's so violent (it's so violet)
We flew so close to the sun
We burnt off our wings
Such a poisonous sting

I should've seen what
Everyone told me
To run from
I should've seen what
(Seen it coming I should've seen it coming)
Everyone told me to run from
(Seen it coming I should've seen it coming)

Staring through the glass, it's not what it seems
Playing with fire (playing with fire)
It's so violent (it's so violent)
We flew so close to the sun
We burnt off our wings
Such a poisonous sting

For all of us
For all of us
