

What's He Gonna Say About Me

Point Of Grace

Now and then I must admit
I hide behind my shallowness
I must confess I don't begin to say enough
I'll tell you of my lessons learned
But I may never quite express

That God blessed me far beyond
What I deserve
I often miss the chance to show my
Faith in Him
By failing to convey what I have seen
And then I wonder while I face eternity
How Jesus ever finds a way to intercede
For me

What's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that
I have done
Against the words that I have
Failed to speak
What's He gonna say about me
When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believed
What's He gonna say about me

After this lifetime will come
The thankfulness that I forget
I will regret when I see clearly who He is Then I'll know all I should have said
So I must choose to not neglect
But resurrect the praise for all He is to me
I often miss the chance to show my faith in Him
By failing to convey what I have seen
And then I wonder while I face eternity
How Jesus ever finds a way to intercede
For me, oh

What's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that
I have done
Against the words that I have
Failed to speak
What's He gonna say about me
When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believed
What's He gonna say about me

If I confess Him before men
He will confess me before the
Father in Heaven

What's He gonna say about me
When He weighs the works that
I have done
Against the words that I have
Failed to speak
What's He gonna say about me

When the chaff is sifted from the wheat
Will there be evidence that I believed
What's He gonna say about me
