Be the One

So you want to talk about the pain Talk to me, please explain Maybe I know what your going through

You got so much pain to hide You keep it locked up deep inside In a room no one gets to

I can't feel the way you feel Maybe i, I've got those same scars, same scars to heal Wish you've got to understand I want to be the only man to Ever touch you baby To ever

I'll be there should the sun go down Lift you up to a higher ground Let me in, let me be the one I'll be there should you fall from grace Wipe those tear drops from your face I see no more damage done Baby, baby, Just let me be the one

I want to be the one to show to you? Should the rains come down Never let you drown I'll pull you through

I want to hear you when you scream Be your prince when you dream Hold you close when you cry

I said I want to feel your love, your hate Should you be lost, I'll bear your cross of pain Love seal your fate I'll comfort you in fits of rage I'll be the book you can turn the page, and I'll still love baby I'll still

I'll be there should the sun go down Lift you up to a higher ground Let me in, let me be the one I'll be there should you fall from grace Wipe those tear drops from your face I see no more damage done Baby, baby, Just let me be the one

I gotta touch you I'll see no more damage done You gotta let me

I hear the hurt I hear the scars You can lay your hand right down across my heart Then you'll learn to understand

Poison

I want to be the only man to Ever touch you baby, ever touch you baby ever

I'll be there should the sun go down Lift you up to a higher ground Let me in, let me be the one I'll be there should you fall from grace Wipe those tear drops from your face I see no more damage done Baby, baby, Just let me be the one

I'll be calm in fits of rage
Hold you close in times of pain
I see more damage done
Baby, baby, you got to let me be the one
