To The Engravers

Polar Bear Club

Deep in a headphone head lock
My head down, hood up
And I'll Scrunch my fists, tuck 'em in my pockets, forget about face 'cuz I know I've lost it
"Giving blood" to cool out and cheer up.
Deep in a headphone head lock
My head down, hood up

Every inch of me ready to fight
My head, gut, arms and legs
Are gunning for the chance to break
But my heart stays cool, my heart stays cool
As air is engraved by hand
It all flies by the van
It all flies by

They can't take the summer away
Scrunch my fists, tuck 'em in my pockets,
scrunch my fists tuck 'em in my pockets
