

When she's crying, she cries
Just to speak
They'll be no hope, no hope
For peace

You're only afraid
You're afraid to die
Still calls out mother
Beg to find

When she's crying, she cries
Just to speak
They'll be no hope, no hope
For peace

Changing doors
Rocking back and forth
Across small towns
Escape her in the dark

Paralyzing car lines
Drive but not
Paralyzing car lines
You drive, but not

When she's crying, she cries
Just to speak
They'll be no hope, no hope

He hold her down
Waist sweat forms
Paralyzing car lines
They drive but not

Explains her life
And where she's from
It made her crazy
But not like for fun

When she's crying, she cries
Just to speak

You don't know me anymore
When I am burning down your door
Effacing to the clouds
Screaming out loud, screaming out loud

You don't know me anymore
When I am burning down your door
Effacing to the clouds
Screaming out loud, screaming out loud

You don't know me anymore
When I am burning down your door
Effacing to the clouds
Screaming out loud, screaming out loud
