

After You

Polly Scattergood

Oh, we waited 'til we couldn't wait any longer
'Til the waves came up and they covered you in water
Oh, we walked and we walked and we walked until the morning
And we walked until I couldn't hear you calling

Tell me why do you insist
On dying every time I close my eyes
Tell me why do you insist
On dying every time I close my eyes

Blinding is your system overloaded
With no warning and no explaining, you imploded
All the moments, all the memories, all the echoes
And sometimes I find I'm driving past your window

Tell me why do you insist
On dying every time I close my eyes
Tell me why do you insist
On dying every time I close my eyes

Tell me why do you insist
On dying every time I close my eyes
Close my eyes, close my eyes
Close my eyes
