

Anchor

Polly Scattergood

I am the anchor
Drown your thoughts around me
I am the nameless chain that holds you in the night
Drown your thoughts around me

'Cause I'm drifting
I'm floating
I'm free

I can see the waves
I can see the waves
I can see the waves
I can see the waves

You are the needle
That punctures holes in me
Deflating everything I ever thought I had

We drown like stones in the sea

I'm drifting
I'm floating
I'm free

I can see the waves
I can see the waves
I can see the waves
I can see the waves

I'm drifting
I'm floating
I'm free

I can see the waves
I can see the waves
I can see the waves
I can see the waves
