

Hard Body

Polo G

Mm, mm-mm-uh, uh, uh
Uh, uh-uh, uh, uh

Was trippin' off them Xans, they couldn't understand
Hardbody, so I won't cry, uh
Ed was the man, wish he had a second chance
Fell victim to a .45, uh
He was really here for a short time
No, you can't escape death when it's your time
Rollin' 'round in them vans, saw his life flash
Up them motherfuckin' cans when them doors slide, uh

I keep tryna follow paper trails
Block adopted, they ain't raise me well
Ain't learnin' knowledge, we just raisin' hell
Like fuck the college, we invadin' jail

Open they crowd like a moshpit
You better duck or get your top hit
Cleanin' crew, we pull up with them mopsticks
I could let my demons loose, we ridin', don't get carsick
Really, I believed in you, it turned out that you not shit
Movin' on, that's easy too, quit actin' like I'm not rich
Fuck these IG hoes, I'd rather have a block bitch
She been playin' on my heartstrings like a guitar pick
I know what broken hearts mean, was tryna dodge it, uh
Best play his cards right before we call his bluff
Like if I up this pipe, bet he ain't talkin' tough
Was in it all night and it was all of us
Nah, this shit ain't just hype, they think I lost it, huh

Was trippin' off them Xans, they couldn't understand
Hardbody, so I won't cry, uh
Ed was the man, wish he had a second chance
Fell victim to a .45, uh
He was really here for a short time
No, you can't escape death when it's your time
Rollin' 'round in them vans, saw his life flash
Up them motherfuckin' cans when them doors slide, uh

I keep tryna follow paper trails
Block adopted, they ain't raise me well
Ain't learnin' knowledge, we just raisin' hell
Like fuck the college, we invadin' jail

He was with his homie on his last breathin'
Type of shit'll make a nigga slide for no reason
Life on the line, yeah, I'm dyin' for my demons
Ain't tryna show my feelings to disguise I was fiendin'
Play every situation, from my mind how I read it
All I see is red, from my eyes, I was bleedin'
Lies, they'll blind you and look can be deceivin'
I looked into your heart, but I couldn't find what I needed
You wasn't solid from the start, you had one plot
So when you up and changed on me, no, I wasn't shocked
We was young, it was schoolgirls and jump shots
Then we fell in love with heavy metal like punk rock

Was trippin' off them Xans, they couldn't understand
Hardbody, so I won't cry, uh
Ed was the man, wish he had a second chance
Fell victim to a .45, uh
He was really here for a short time
No, you can't escape death when it's your time
Rollin' 'round in them vans, saw his life flash
Up them motherfuckin' cans when them doors slide, uh

I keep tryna follow paper trails
Block adopted, they ain't raise me well
Ain't learnin' knowledge, we just raisin' hell
Like fuck the college, we invadin' jail (One more time)
