Gemini Cusp

Polvo

i can't count
what's the number of the jokes i've seen a thousand in nine five now profit trial for the public files i can't hear them without a taste of doubt and still i doubt that's what i'm all about it's all my doubt

i can't stand back watch you waste another try don't drop it on me so quick don't hit me with a pile of bricks i won't preach the comfort of this void we've reached but i was born on the gemini cusp and that's enough of trust
