

Bagged and Bound

Pond

she unwinds with sewing thread changing outfits baking bread for her man to come home to she unwinds by picking roses splitting eyebrows breaking noses for the man when he comes home now waiting for game shows to come on in the morning check out clerks can smile all day taking coupons making change check out clerks are gagged and bound under counters till their found try to win it back at the horses now waiting for no shows at the racetrack in the morning collarbones are sometimes bared men and women sometimes wear clothes to stick right out of car phones are often kyped from their chargers late at night only the sickest ever think to rape them now wait for testosterone at the dial tone in the morning
