

Constant Picnic

Pond

Ooh, I swear I feel a heartbeat
You put your ear to the floor, and you're so strung out
Heaven help the paparazzi
When the drums of war all play out
Everybody's always leaving for the east

Here comes the sun, there goes Fiji
I loved someone, but they didn't love me
It's the same old story, you've heard it before
I'd tell you more if I could unclench my jaw
I'd sweep your hallway, I'd haunt your doorway
I'll be the clothes piled up on your floor, babe

Ooh, you hit me like lightning
Wrap me up like a raven or a cloud
If you're flying with your right wing
Guess you're gonna spin around and around now
Love is always living for the east

Here comes the sun, there goes Fiji
I loved someone, but they didn't love me
It's a constant picnic, an endless summer
The curtain's falling, but at least I'm dumber
It'd be so easy if I didn't love her
If I didn't love her
