

Elegant Design

Pond

Every day's the same, devoid of anything
Walking around the broken fences and see never empty land
But I don't really mind, it's just so hard to find
Black and [?] the rain's gone for a little piece of mind

All I'm trying to define is the elegant design
It's gonna take so many words, I'm tripping fast for time
Mountains crash into the sea, but it doesn't seem to worry me
I only think of you

Take the busy way that's what my friends all say
But I don't think they really get the point of elegant sweet da y
I'm sure it's gonna end, I may not have any friends
But at the end of the day, I think I'll be okay if I work it ou t instead

All I'm trying to define is the elegant design
It's gonna take so many words, I'm tripping fast for time
Mountains crash into the sea, but it doesn't seem to worry me
I only think of you, I only think of you

All I'm trying to define is the elegant design
It's gonna take so many words, I'm tripping fast for time
Mountains crash into the sea, but it doesn't seem to worry me
I only think of you, I only think of you
