

Human Touch

Pond

She was talking at the speed of ice
As I emptied the organic waste
She was jacking a car but she seemed quite nice
So I let her use the toilet in my place
I need the Daily Mail to get off my street
But they're turning grey and they need red meat
Wasting away, gaunt and sallow
But they can't be drowned cause they're too damn shallow

I need some human connection
I need some human touch
I been behind these screens so long I'm leading with my crotch
I need some human connection
If you're not too busy
I been looking around so long I'm getting dizzy, dizzy, dizzy a nd I need static
I need static
Ecstatic
I wanna feel I need static, static, static
Ecstatic

Like a wounded animal you try to scream but you just want to si n
You're jolted awake with cum in your jeans and a silent silver morning in a Comfort Inn
She was holding the spark plugs making fire
I was watering my girlfriend's plants
Of her fucking face but not a liar
She ripped out the glass with her bare hands

I need some human connection
If you're not too busy
I been looking around so long I'm getting dizzy, dizzy, dizzy a nd I need static
I need static
Ecstatic
I wanna feel static, static, static
Ecstatic
