

Patience

Pond

I'll sleep instead in the other room a hollow heart a different bed in home movies raising your hands remembering you until I can't you waited for me once

gone long enough to find out I'll distract myself and let it rot you don't need to tell me you're back now it's not the same I know it's not one thing's true

I loved you
