

Wheel

Pond

Its the same shape as the teardrop starts to break she started sobbing in waves she's shaking wheel to wheel and the retarded man who's hiding food under his coat running through the weeds of fall so radiant on the same day she was sad to graduate she had to park in the street
what is a world without wheels he left his home because he didn't watch TV without his meds he feels so radiant in his world in his wheel of daisy chains

in jail they sprayed for lice cherry coke cherry coke it was hi s favorite three days she saw him once crawl out from underneath the porch she didn't notice he looked radiant and god she cussed the girl who cut her hair she looked just hit by the wheel and he's pulling up the grass he crushed into his hand he notices the leaves look radiant and cold it rakes and tears the break of day they find her wrap ped in the steel rags of his coat hang like tassels from his sleeves waking up l ate again so radiant and they chiseled it out and her parents figured out the words she's causing nothing but pain they got the stone at a deal and the retarded man who's laughing pop out of his nose underne ath the ridge he smiles so radiantly
