

Sorry

Pony Pony Run Run

Two years since
I began to let you
Face your fears
Sorry I just didn't Know how hard how hard it was
To wait for something that never comes
The end is near
Or it's just about to start
I feel
Things are getting better
Maybe we can try to find
If we can do it one more time

Everyday
Looks like another one
Make it change
Or let it go
Everyday
We try to make it fine
But at this time, we wait

Sorry I
Am sorry I
Can't tell you how
I'm sorry now

Two years since
I began to let you dry your tears
I could never forget what you said before I go
At least, you should know
