

ADDICT REMIX

Poo Bear

How you attack me with no warning, that's my favorite
How you aggressive in the morning, that's my favorite
How you never tap out, that's my favorite
Like to stretch the moment out, so you can savor it
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure

You a glutton for a punishment
When I slap that ass, you say "Harder"
You appreciate my accomplishments
I beat it up and leave it out of order
How you keep running like a faucet, that's my favorite
The way your lips fit around my dick feels like a bracelet
No one else can stand it, won't take that for granted
No

How you attack me with no warning, that's my favorite
How you aggressive in the morning, that's my favorite
How you never tap out, that's my favorite
Like to stretch the moment out, so you can savor it
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure
Whoa, oh
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure
Oh, yeah

You say, "Spread it open, put a finger in it
Don't be scared to shift a kidney when you're feeling it
The fourth dimension is a place that you won't forget"
Baby, we won't forget
The way you take you all
That's my favorite
And how you grip it harder
That's my favorite
Love how you beg for me like a cigarette
Love how you beg for me to bust on it, yeah

How you attack me with no warning, that's my favorite
That's my favorite
How you aggressive in the morning, that's my favorite
That's my favorite
How you never tap out, that's my favorite
Ooh, yeah
Like to stretch the moment out, so you can savor it
You can savor it
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure
Whoa, oh
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure
Gotta love how the pain brings you pleasure, oh, oh

You been leaving hickies on my balls, it hurts so good
Ride my dick until you fall asleep, I wish you would Call off from work tomorrow
Keep cumin', yeah, you should
