

Inside Out

Poo Bear

Love your infrastructure
Frame underneath
From the fibers of your hair down to your feet
The strength of your muscle
So hard to believe
Ooh, the drumming of your heart puts me at ease

Yeah, you're immaculate
Inside out
From inside out
I cherish every piece of you
Now you got me
Inside out
I applaud every inch of you
From inside out

I'm imploding
From your water pressure
So intricate like blood running through veins
Your soul is a magnet, it's attracting my soul to you
Like when the tide is high predicted from the moon

Yeah, you're immaculate
Inside out
From inside out
I cherish every piece of you
Now you got me
Inside out
I applaud every inch of you
From inside out
