

Summer Hail

Poo Bear

I've waited so long
No one could save me but you
Restless heart
You gave me the will to pull through

All this time, you're whom
I've been waiting for
Finally, I recognize
What peace and love is forever more
Summer hail
Summer hail
My beliefs were suddenly derailed
By your summer hail

My lonely heart craved
For sky so blue
My only desire
Was for my soul to be true
Stretched out on my bed
I heard your voice resonated
And all my past sins culminated
And reverberated

I've waited so long
No one could save me but you
Restless heart
You gave me the will to pull through

All this time, you're whom
I've been waiting for
Finally, I recognize
What peace and love is forever more
Summer hail
Summer hail
My beliefs were suddenly derailed
By your summer hail

(I've waited so long
No one could save me but you
Restless heart
You gave me the will to pull through)

Summer hail
