

Float Away

Poolside

Out here the ocean's loud
And now your favorite station's fading out
Ooh, but since you're not around
It's not a conversation I'm about

Your loving helps me out
Each time I start to float away
Away

Rowed right back into the bay
Because you won't write back, what can I say?
I need your love so bad, I've been away
But now I'm back on track, I know it's late
So I rowed right back into the bay
I know you won't write back, what can I say?
I need your love so bad, I've been away
But now I'm back on track, I know it's late tonight

I'll play guitar and drown
All while your favorite station's playing loud
Ooh, just saw the greatest cloud
But nothing moves me when you're not around

Your loving helps me out
Each time I start to float away
Away
Each time I start to float away

Rowed right back into the bay
Because you won't write back, what can I say?
I need your love so bad, I've been away
But now I'm back on track, I know it's late (sometimes I float away)
So I rowed right back into the bay
I know you won't write back, what can I say?
I need your love so bad, I've been away
But now I'm back on track, I know it's late tonight (float away
)

Each time I start to float away