

Give It a Rest

Poolside

Someone fooled you, into a fright
Of whether am, I on the sky

I still need you in my life
Just give it a try
And put your head to my chest

And say you'll give it a rest, give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart, reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Someone fooled you, into a fright
Of whether am, I on the sky

I still need you in my life
Put your head on my chest
And say you'll give it a rest

Someone fooled you, into a fright
Of whether am, on the sky

I still need you in my life
Just give it a try
And put your head to my chest

And say you'll give it a rest, give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart, reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Beyond perception
Who knows how far
Beyond the stickers on the side of your car

Beyond perception
Who knows how far
These misconceptions can drive us apart

Give it a rest, give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart, reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Give it a rest, give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest

Give it a rest
I'll never reach in my heart, reach in my heart
There'll be a name on your chest
