

Lonely Night

Poolside

When I opened up your letter
It told me things don't look okay
And I think I should forget her
You know things aren't like yesterday anymore

Ooh, another lonely night
Ooh, another lonely night
Just a lonely night

Baby, you think it must be easy
To hold these tears inside
And I just can't stop this feeling
So I guess this is goodbye, goodbye

Ooh, another lonely night
Without you, without you
Ooh, another lonely night
Just a lonely night

Another lonely night
Just a lonely night
