Poor Man's Poison

Things sure ain't lookin' like they used to
You got the people dyin' all over the place
The government's lying right to your face, and
People ain't teachin' what people need to know
But don't make a sound, don't raise your voice
Because you might get shot if you make the wrong choice

There's a change comin'
Comin' for me and you
There's a change comin'
Sky turns black with a bloodshot moon, said a
Change is a-comin'
Forget about yesterday
And when that change is comin'
You better conform or start diggin' your grave, I said
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh

Folks sure ain't actin' like they used to
You got people buyin' little kids for slaves
And all the unborn babies goin' straight to the grave, and
People done forgot what it means to care
But when the hands are comin' don't start to cry
You're the one to blame and now it's time to die

There's a change comin'
Comin' for me and you
There's a change comin'
Sky turns black with a bloodshot moon, said a
Change is a-comin'
Forget about yesterday
And when that change is comin'
You better conform or start diggin' your grave, I said
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh

When it's dark and oh-so-cold
And your body has left your soul
Just remember what you've been told

That there's a change comin'
For me and you
There's a change comin'
Sky turns black with a bloodshot moon, said a
Change is a-comin'
Forget about yesterday
And when that change starts comin'
You better conform or start diggin' your grave, I said
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
O-o-o-o-oh
