

Redemption

Poor Man's Poison

Well I tried
And I'll never try again
Your betrayal runs deeper than blood
We are not friends

You just take
Then take what's left
Leave me desperate and longing for answers
Longing for rest

Oh redemption
Oh sweet redemption

Well I've walked alone before
And I'll do it again
Where your footprints once laid right by mine
Is now emptiness

Remember this day
Remember the words you've chosen
And I hope it kills you inside every day
'Cause inside I'm broken

Oh redemption
Oh sweet redemption

Oh redemption
Oh sweet redemption
