

Afraid

POORSTACY

Rip me into pieces, tear me apart
You're so conceited, where is your heart?
I think I've seen a sign in the stars
Why are you so afraid to be alone in the dark?

Why are you so afraid?
Why are you so afraid?
Why are you so afraid?
Why are you so afraid?

I need your touch, I love the feeling
All your scars look so appealing
Watch me hanging from the ceiling
Yes your soul is what I'm stealing

Why are you so afraid?
Why are you so afraid?
Why are you so afraid?
Why are you so afraid?
