POORSTACY

Oh
Oh, let you break me
Oh, let you break me
Oh, oh

Girl I won't, won't let you break me
No, I won't, won't let you take me
Girl I won't, won't let you break me
No, I won't, won't let you take me
You're the main cause of all my pain and stress
Isolated, I live in my own mess
And nothing is the only thing you'll get from me, you'll get from me
(Oh oh oh)

I used to think you were the girl of my dreams
But you're everything in between
I guess you're not the one for me
I guess you're not the one for me
I can't get out, I don't know how
It's all gonna work out
It's all gonna work out
I don't wanna calm down

Oh
Oh, let you break me
Oh, let you break me
Oh, oh

Girl I won't, won't let you break me
No, I won't, won't let you take me
Girl I won't, won't let you break me
No, I won't, won't let you take me
You're the main cause of all my pain and stress
Isolated, I live in my own mess
And nothing is the only thing you'll get from me, you'll get from me
(Oh oh oh)

I used to think you were the girl of my dreams
But you're everything in between
I guess you're not the one for me
I guess you're not the one for me
I can't get out, I don't know how
It's all gonna work out
It's all gonna work out
I don't wanna calm down

Oh
Oh, let you break me
Oh, let you break me
Oh, oh

Girl I won't, won't let you break me
No, I won't, won't let you take me
Girl I won't, won't let you break me
No, I won't, won't let you take me
You're the main cause of all my pain and stress
Isolated, I live in my own mess

And nothing is only thing you'll get from me, you'll get from me
