

Losing Yourself

POP ETC

You always look away
Whenever I ask about the future
There's never any days
I know you're worrying about
Searching for a sign
Looking for a love with no past
Now I don't wanna fight
You know I didn't mean to laugh

'Cause if you don't know, know, know what you want
You keep losing yourself
If you don't know, know, know what you want
You keep losing yourself

Jump into your car
And leave everything you know behind
You won't make it too far
Before your troubles track you down
Crawling back to me
Try to just blame it on the weather
But I can't give you what you need
That'll never make it better

'Cause if you don't know, know, know what you want
You keep losing yourself
If you don't know, know, know what you want
You keep losing yourself

And if your eyes keep wandering towards the door
You keep losing yourself
And if you don't have a clue what your life's for
You keep losing yourself

You're looking for a kind heart
A shoulder to cry on
And you know I can play the part
But it can't go on like this forever

Now I try to make it clear
Try to state my case
I understand you fear
But there are certain points, baby
That you can't say yes
Or you can't say no
Just let go, let it go now

'Cause if you don't know, know, know what you want
You keep losing yourself
If you don't know, know, know what you want
You keep losing yourself

And if your eyes keep wandering towards the door
You keep losing yourself
And if you don't have a clue what your life's for

'Cos you always look away

Whenever I ask about the future
There's never any days
What are you worrying about
