Pop Evil

Am I a thief? Your arch enemy, number one?
Tell me what we've become Become, become
I had to take what I got
I had to be what you're not
Against a system full of victims

You keep pushing me around again
Caught up in your whirlwind
If giving in like you is what I have to do
To be a hero
Then I'd rather be a criminal
Criminal

Sacrifice all the decisions you made
So you could live the charade you played
Your game, behind my back throwing your shade
I could never escape
Escape

You keep pushing me around again
Caught up in your whirlwind
If giving in like you is what I have to do
To be a hero
Then I'd rather be a criminal
Criminal

You keep pushing me around again
Caught up in your whirlwind
If giving in like you is what I have to do
To be a hero
Then I'd rather be a criminal

You keep pushing me around again
A criminal
Caught up in your whirlwind
If giving in like you is what I have to do
To be a hero
Then I'd rather be a criminal
Criminal
Criminal
Criminal

You keep pushing me around again
