

Enough Is Enough

Pop Evil

Enough is enough

Lord, forgive me if I stumble, if I fall
If I'm clumsy, could I really lose it all?
Still, I'm empty, and it fills me up with dread
They try to write me off, am I better off dead?

So compare me, saying what you want
Is it deadly, tearing me apart?
'Cause it tempts me, I'm jumping off the edge
Still, I try to stay alive, am I better off dead?

Enough is enough
When too much is too much
We fall down, get back up, up
You choke my words from my throat
Our promises go up in smoke
Enough is enough
Enough is enough

Forgive me while I'm falling down
Into my soul is broken
My feet are floating off the ground
Inside, my mind is open

So compare me, saying what you want
Is it deadly, tearing me apart?
'Cause it tempts me, I'm jumping off the edge
Still, I try to stay alive, am I better off dead?

Enough is enough
When too much is too much
We fall down, get back up, up
You choke my words from my throat
Our promises go up in smoke
Enough is enough

Your time is up, enough is enough
Jaws on the floor, I'm about to erupt, do it

So compare me, saying what you want
Is it deadly, tearing me apart?
'Cause it tempts me, I'm jumping off the edge
Still, I try to stay alive, am I better off dead?

Enough is enough
When too much is too much
We fall down, get back up, up
You choke my words from my throat
Our promises go up in smoke
Enough is enough

Enough is enough
