

Overkill

Pop Evil

Overkill
Break me down and bury me

I am tired of waiting for my days to end
Misery blends in like shadows
Darkness falls, so I face my fear
Run away or poison the hero
So many ghosts, trying to keep them close
Nobody knows, they surround me screaming
Looking back, trying to eat my soul
So alone, so I lost control
Misery blends in like shadows

Overkill
Break me down and bury me
Overkill
Did I ever exist? Please, tell me I am alive
Overkill

Looking down into my empty glass
I confess I can see rock bottom
Threw grenades trying to save myself
Explosions now long forgotten
Adrenaline always held within
But here's another round going through this Hell I'm in
So, yeah, back and forth feels wrong
It's on, there's nothing more
When you're rotten to the core

Overkill
Break me down and bury me
Overkill
Did I ever exist? Please, tell me I am alive
When my worlds collide, I denied the destruction
Caused by my thoughts inside
Overkill
Break me down and bury me

Overkill
Break me down and bury me
Did I ever exist at all?

I am tired of waiting for me days to end
Misery blends in like shadows

Overkill
Break me down and bury me
Overkill
Did I ever exist? Please, tell me I am alive
When my worlds collide, I denied the destruction
Caused by my thoughts inside
Overkill
Break me down and bury me
