

Paranoid (Crash & Burn)

Pop Evil

Madness

It's all that I can breathe under the ashes
The scars from my past are like matches
Soaked in kerosene-now
Everyone can see

Restless

I'm buried in the clouds, but I'm weightless
There's blood in my mouth
I can taste it
I'm starting to believe
The voices inside of me

Will you pull me out of the dark
When I'm fallin'
Falling apart dead inside
I don't know how it all began
And I don't want it all to end me
The voice in my head is a threat
Paranoid

Paranoid

Paranoid

The voice in my head is a threat
Paranoid

Paranoid

Paranoid

The voice in my head is a threat

Voices

Screaming in my face in the darkness
Falling from the sky, like ashes
Now it's my turn
I'm about to crash
Crash and burn

Crash and burn

The voice in my head is a threat

Will you pull me out of the dark
When I'm fallin'
Falling apart dead inside
I don't know how it all began
And I don't want it all to end me
The voice in my head is a threat
Paranoid

I pushed you out to keep it inside

The voice in my head is a threat

I lie awake, still wondering why

The voice in my head is a threat

I pushed you out to keep it inside

The voice in my head is a threat

I lie awake, still wondering why

Get out of my head

Will you pull me out of the dark
When I'm fallin'
And I don't want it all to end me
Paranoid

I pushed you out to keep it inside
I lie awake, still wondering why

I pushed you out to keep it inside

Paranoid
Paranoid
The voice in my head is a threat

Paranoid
Paranoid
The voice in my head is a threat

Paranoid
The voice in my head is a threat
