Unstoppable

Pop Evil

Head strong and we're standing tall.
Ready to fight, we're ready to brawl.
In the distance, hearin' them calling your name.
The time has come to deliver the pain.
Cause you're going, going, down.

We're unstoppable, like a freight train.
Your momma said your never gonna be the same.
We're unstoppable like a hurricane rolling through your town
We're gonna tear it down.
We're unstoppable.

Another beat down coming your way.
Show your face stop running away.
No resistance, you're backs against the wall.
Right now we're gonna take it all.
Cause we're going, going, down.

We're unstoppable, like a freight train.
Your momma said your never gonna be the same.
We're unstoppable like a hurricane rolling through your town.
We're gonna tear it down.
We're unstoppable.

On the edge of it all, somewhere my eyes will let this fall (th e lieing eyes of a fool?)
Somewhere in some chance survive but the fire always burns from the inside.

We're unstoppable, like a freight train.
Your momma said your never gonna be the same.
We're unstoppable like a hurricane rolling through your town.
We're gonna tear it down
We're unstoppable

We're unstoppable, like a freight train.
Your momma said your never gonna be the same.
We're unstoppable like a hurricane, rolling through your town.
We're gonna tear it down.
We're unstoppable.
Yeah, we're unstoppable.
