

Zero To None

Pop Evil

Caution, they try to lay you down, lay you down
In your coffin buried in the ground
Momentum always torn apart
You're waiting to strike, but
Now you're ready, revenge always makes a good enemy
No more waiting, there's nothing left to lose

When the clocks run out, your time's up
In the blink of an eye it's all on the line
You get one chance, it's your fight
But you're not done, you will not run
You're zero to none
Zero to none

Faceless, they try to write you off from the start
Set the fire to the match, lit the spark
Awaken desire from within
Now you're born again, but
Now you're ready, revenge always makes a good enemy
No more waiting, you've already paid your dues

When the clocks run out, your time's up
In the blink of an eye it's all on the line
You get one chance, it's your fight
But you're not done, you will not run
You're zero to none
Zero to none

When the clocks run out, your time's up
In the blink of an eye it's all on the line

When the clocks run out, your time's up
In the blink of an eye it's all on the line
You get one chance, it's your fight
But you're not done, you will not run
You're zero to none
Zero to none

When the clocks run out, your time's up
But you're not done, you will not run
You're zero to none
