

Altar

Poppy

She'll take you straight to the bank
Don't marry that gutter skank
I know the pressure is high
And she's gonna cry
But that old news needs to die

You're standing at the altar, baby
I'm coming straight for you
The getaway car is waiting
And we'll ride into the blue
Church bells don't ring,
Church bells don't ring too soon
You're standing at the altar,
I'm coming for you

I know that she has a gun,
It's an emotional one
And in your vulnerable state,
She loves to manipulate
And when you're weak and in pain,
She comes around again

You're standing at the altar, baby
I'm coming straight for you
The getaway car is waiting
And we'll ride into the blue
Church bells don't ring,
Church bells don't ring too soon
You're standing at the altar,
I'm coming for you

She'll never love you like I love you
'Cause we were born to be together, babe
So, don't you leave me for another
Don't say "I do"

You're standing at the altar, baby
I'm coming straight for you

You're standing at the altar, baby
I'm coming straight for you
The getaway car is waiting
And we'll ride into the blue
Church bells don't ring,
Church bells don't ring too soon
You're standing at the altar, oh

You're standing at the altar, baby
I'm coming straight for you
The getaway car is waiting
And we'll ride into the blue
Church bells don't ring,
Church bells don't ring too soon
You're standing at the altar,
I'm coming for you
