

Blush

Poppy

Didn't know I had a heart 'til you woke it up, woke it up
Told me lovin' wasn't smart, it could cut you up, cut you up, yeah
Ran to you when I was running away
You were aloof, you were making me wait, yeah
Didn't know I had a heart 'til you woke it up, woke it up

There's no point in trying to disguise it
Even if I try, no, I couldn't hide it
I thought my life was out of surprises
But I was wrong

'Cause you're making me blush
No need for makeup
I want you so much, you're making me blush
You're making me blush every time we touch
I want you so much, keep making me blush

Thinking maybe every heart has a counterpart, counterpart, yeah
I can measure how I feel but it's off the charts, off the charts, yeah
h
Been to you when I was running away
You were aloof, you were making me wait, yeah
I'm thinking every heart has a counterpart, counterpart

There's no point in trying to disguise it
Even if I try, no, I couldn't hide it
I thought my life was out of surprises
But I was wrong

'Cause you're making me blush
No need for makeup
I want you so much, you're making me blush
You're making me blush every time we touch
I want you so much, keep making me blush

It's what you do to me, do to me, oh
Look what you do to me, do to me, no
It's what you do to me, do to me, oh, I know

'Cause you're making me blush
No need for makeup
I want you so much, you're making me blush
You're making me blush every time we touch
I want you so much, keep making me blush

It's what you do to me, do to me, oh
Look what you do to me, do to me, no
It's what you do to me, do to me, oh
(Making me blush, making me)
(Making me)
