

Guns & Gold (Everybody Wants It All)

Poppy

Are you gonna shape up?
It's coming out tomorrow
A mission's all they gave us, but you wanna follow

Runnin' underneath the surface of a broken town
I can't breathe the air up there, I'm walking underground

Guns, gold and control
Scoopin' up more than you can hold
Everybody wants it all
Wake up, they're watching us fall
Seeing your life in a crystal ball
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all

Can you buy the sky?
Or can you own the ocean?
Maybe when you die, you'll find a new devotion

Will you recognize it when you see it face to face?
Could you hold the weight of the world on your shoulder blade?

Guns, gold and control
Scoopin' up more than you can hold
Everybody wants it all
Wake up, they're watching us fall
Seeing your life in a crystal ball
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all

And when you have it all
Will you be happy then?
When will you have it all?
And when you have it all
Will you be happy then?
When will you have it all?

Guns, gold and control
Scoopin' up more than you can hold
Everybody wants it all
Wake up, they're watching us fall
Seeing your life in a crystal ball
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all
Everybody wants it all
