

Hard

Poppy

Hard
My body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark
I'm only breathing to keep my intellect sharp
Dark
My sense of humor, so dark
Terrifying for a spark
I see you reaching, can't catch me off guard

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark, shoot to hit the mark
Keep my nails so sharp
Tear you apart, whatever you are
I'm so hard, I'm so hard, I'm so hard
I'm so hard

Can't trust
What I can't throw very far
Take a walk in the park
And on the weekend, you'll catch me working on my car
Woke up
And saw it as it was
You thought that it was tough
But it crumbled with a touch

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark, shoot to hit the mark
Keep my nails so sharp
Tear you apart, whatever you are
I'm so hard, I'm so hard, I'm so hard
I'm so hard

No spine, no right, no love, no dice
I always pay the price
No spine, no right, no love, no dice
I always finish your fights
No spine, no right, no love, no dice
I always pay the price
No spine, no right, no love, no dice
I always finish your fights

Hard, my body's so hard
Only shoot to hit the mark, shoot to hit the mark
Keep my nails so sharp
Tear you apart, whatever you are
I'm so hard, I'm so hard, I'm so hard
I'm so hard
