

Metal

Poppy

We're in the building where they make us grow
And I'm frightened by the liquid engineers, like you

My Mallory heart is sure to fail
I could crawl around the floor just like I'm real, like you

The sound of metal, I want to be you
I should learn to be a man, like you

Plug me in and turn me on
Oh, everything is moving

I need my treatment, it's tomorrow they send me
Singing, "I am an American", do you?

Picture this, if I can make the change
I'd love to pull the wires from the wall, do you?

And who are you? And how could I, try?
Here inside, I like metal, do you?

And who are you? And how could I, try?
Here inside, I like metal, don't you?

All I know, is no one dies
I'm still confusing love with need
