

Anymore

Porches.

I close my eyes
Enter a warmth
My heart beating slow
So soft and dark
I talk to you
I talk to you

I wanted to be all around me
I think about it 'till I am empty
I get undone
I get undone

So hollow ain't you
It's got me weak
Go wonder if you think
Not anymore
Not anymore

My head sunken in sweet
All down the hill
We cut through the night
Our bodies so still
And I let it go
I let it go

I thought to you
I thought to you
I thought to you
I thought to you
