

Xanny Bar

Porches.

I couldn't help from noticing you across the bar
Hello I'm Ronnie, and I'm falling apart
Do ya want me bad?
Like I want you?
You said "I'm Edith and I've always been a mess"
Well nice to meet you maybe we'll undress
But we could just lie down
We both could use the rest
So I hold on
To dim wit cigarette
And I take a deep breath
Cuz I know you can't
I felt a greatness when I layed within your grassy realm
Crawled across the floor to a patched up helm
Your hips the balmy swell
In porno hell
And I said, "Hey, would you wanna join the loner metal band?"
And you said, "Maybe we could just hold hands?"
Well if that's the only place they'd land
I'd die a happy boy
