

Falling Again

Porter Wagoner

(Falling falling falling out of love)

Darling, we're falling in and out of love
But each time we're falling back again
We have a fight and then we make back up
Now here we go falling again
Falling again, falling again, falling again out of love

Each time this happens when we make a vow
To keep our love grew thick or thin
But then we disagree as we're doin' now
And here we go falling again
Falling again, falling again, falling again out of love

Darling, someday I hope we'll settle down
This falling back and forth the sin
Not knowing which sweet kiss will be the last
Or when we're falling out again
Falling again, falling again, falling again out of love
(Falling falling falling out of love)
