

Awful Sound

Portugal. The Man

Lengths of snakes match each silent syllable
With eyes like these
Hello? You missed the sparrow's mark
The breath of rockets shone like torches

And will they ever really know?
But will they ever really know?

Mouths that scream such stinging awful sounds
Mouths that scream our ears such awful sounds
Mouths that scream such stinging awful sounds
Mouths that scream our ears such awful sounds
Mouths that scream such stinging awful sounds
Mouths that scream our ears such awful sounds

But will they ever really know?
But will they ever really know?

Mouths that scream such stinging awful sounds
Mouths that scream our ears such awful sounds
Mouths that scream such stinging awful sounds
Mouths that scream our ears such awful sounds
Mouths that scream such stinging awful sounds
Mouths that scream our ears such awful sounds

But will they ever really know?
But will they ever really know?
But will they ever really know?
