

Thunderdome [W.T.A.]

Portugal. The Man

All of the little gatos lose their cabezas this time of year

Welcome to America
I'm waiting on a miracle
All my sins American
Yeah, I'm waiting on a miracle
I don't know what went wrong
Or why this feeling's gone

You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If ya do do do do do

My man Jesus was a Mexican
Walking on the Rio Grande
Learn to speak American
Divided up the Chamisal
64' we split it
Like I don't know what went wrong
Or why this feeling's gone

You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If ya do do do do do

This American life. Vanity, such an American vice
I never question how fair is the price on a pair of sunglasses I'm wearing at night
Face it, we've wasted our youth on the young
Pray for the taste of the truth on the tongue
Rather than taking my place in the pattern, I'm chasing the dragon, I'll live on the run
Dearly departed from where we had started, to where we have come is the eeriest part of it
Scary, the theory of one is the heart of this judgment free zone so it's crazy to feel this alone

Ain't nobody home
Ain't nobody home
Ain't nobody at home

You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If you leave somebody you love
You know you want it
If ya do do do do do

Welcome to America yeah
