

Time's a Fantasy

Portugal. The Man

Come back to me
Come back to me
Come back to me
Come back to me
I see you in my dreams
See you in my dreams
And I scream
I see you in my dreams
See you in my dreams
And I scream

Times a fantasy
Immorality is the ghost that haunts
Like you don't even know me
Stickin' together
We'll be together forever
With the ghost that haunts
All the things you don't owe me

Heavy games
You can't take this back
Cause the future's coming fast
Now you're stuck here forever

You don't need no superstition
To show me the truth
But you're gonna need some ammunition
To shoot down the proof
Don't need astrology
To tell the sun to lead
Just follow the signs and you'll see

Heavy games
Can't take this back
Cause the future's coming fast
Or you're stuck here forever

Got a feelin' that things are gonna be just fine
I got a feelin' that things are gonna be just fine
Ooh, got a feelin' that things are gonna be just fine
