

Demon

Possessed

Dark messiah
Black Madonna
Bestow your blessing
Within this circle of protection
Descend archangels
Into the shadows
Behold this coven
Tonight, the nightmares are so real

Praise the demon that dwells within my soul
Hail the evil, releasing pain and fire
Reign supreme and his wisdoms to behold
Satan's cathedral, his temple of desire
The low will rise up, commanding man and beast
The world's inferior who live life on their knees
With plague and famine, from hell there comes a priest
Inside the mirror, the eye in our eye sees

Cast your souls into the fire
Gaze upon the mighty demon
Terror turns to desire
Stars above, below the burning pyre

Drink blood, destroying all the churches
While laughing at the fire
Kill, kill, slaughter all the clergy
Watch the flames burning higher
Burn, burn, burn the f*cking world
And cry, humanity lost
There's no hope, nothing left to live for Tyrants of the Pentecost
Humanity died while choking on its blood
There's no god, nothing here to save you
The Christian churches' tyrannical song
While dead religion enslaves you
Fall, fall, down on your knees
Pray to the air up above
No one cares about your disease
I will bow to no god
