

Caught In The Trap

Post Animal

Oh!

The rat got caught in the trap again
Thought he could fool his heart again
Now his friends are wondering
When will he come home?
His mind's sharp just like a cheddar
But will he really get out?
That remains to be seen
It's his for the taking

It won't last forever...

So don't go!

Gonna beat it one day
Typically [?] a mousetrap
And your bones would be cracked
But oh, oh, oh!
Still you hunger for a turn [?]
Under all that metal
But you try it one more time
Go!

Gonna beat it one day
It'll be your mousetrap
And your bones would be cracked
But oh, oh, oh!
Yet you want your full turn [?]
Under all that metal
Let's try it one more time

No!

Decisions on a whim can be dreadful
Why don't you crawl back into your hole?
Then your friends won't be wondering
And you'll be alright
The rat's going back for a prize
He's lost in those big brown eyes
Is it all just a dream?
That remains to be seen

Ooooh, not again...

What have I done?
