Post Animal

I'm at a point where I'm really not trying to take it
If you do it again be a problem man then you gotta go
You're not fast asleep, you know exactly what it could mean
That's not okay, their backs are against the wall

No more games
I'm thinking a lot
Need a little ego drop
No more games
I'm going deep

Go ninety five down the highway of burning desire
Just leave a space for those to breathe a little down the road
Common courtesy, you make a way for all to be
I will not play the elusive one you ought to know

No more games
I'm thinking a lot
Need a little ego drop
No more games
I'm going deep
Gonna pass it off

No more games
No more games
No more games
I'm going deep

I'm at a point where I'm really not trying to take it
