

Private Shield

Post Animal

Me and my private shield
You can't see a single thing
But we can you
Fear my private shield
You haven't any idea
What we can do

Just like a vine
You shall crawl, you shall snap
You shall seek mindlessly
Just like a vine stuck in dirt
What you dig, what's your deed
Ordinary, so naive
Shall remain, secret screen
Secret world inside, just for me

Me and my private shield
You can't see a single thing
But we can you
Fear my private shield
You haven't any idea
What we can do

Just like a dog
Heed and beg, tempered dog
Time to move along, get along
Chase and sniff your way on
Oh, simple mind
Sob and moan if you like
Don't bark at what you couldn't climb, couldn't find
Tug your leash, to pretend you would bite

At me and my private shield
You can't see a single thing
But we can you
Fear my private shield
You haven't any idea
What we can do

Private shield
Private shield

I'm stepping in between two
Worlds, shifting, like a ghost
Time is a play, a good game
I can relate to that
Left behind, you didn't know
You couldn't think, had to take a score so low
High enough to line it up, and sigh
And size it up and blow some smoke

For me and my private shield
You can't see a single thing
But we can you
Fear my private shield
You haven't any idea
What we can do
