

A Million £

Potter Payper

If I had a million pound
I'd probably put all my friends on and put the rest in the ground
If I had a million quid
I'd have to watch everyone around me, I seen bare snakes in my old vids
If I had a million cash
It wouldn't be enough, they're probably still gonna call me bruk
And if I had a million bucks
I'd throw it at my pagans and tell them pussies, "Go and buy guns"
If I had a million pound
I'd probably put all my friends on and put the rest in the ground
If I had a million quid
I'd have to watch everyone around me, I seen bare snakes in my old vids
If I had a million cash
It wouldn't be enough, they're probably still gonna call me bruk
And if I had a million bucks
I'd throw it at my pagans and tell them pussies, "Go and buy guns"

Being broke never changed me
Getting money made 'em love me
I would've gave anything for you to not betray me
Dior in the black, red and navy
Took you out the hood and gave you chances, I didn't want you to repay me
With a pound or penny, don't miscommunicate me
I think I need a real one to come and translate me
Treat everything foreign like me no understandin' lately
I don't claim the hood 'cause I ain't tryna let it claim me
You're meant to save something for the days that was rainy
Instead you went and done your own thing, you fucked up and now you blame me
Snakes in the grass, I gotta go grab Tracy

If I had a million pound
I'd probably put all my friends on and put the rest in the ground
If I had a million quid
I'd have to watch everyone around me, I seen bare snakes in my old vids
If I had a million cash
It wouldn't be enough, they're probably still gonna call me bruk
And if I had a million bucks
I'd throw it at my pagans and tell them pussies go and buy guns

I would've never left you for the fame
I would've never changed, not for no amount of change
And if my life was a book, then you would've had your pages in it
You want the spotlight, but I'm still shining in the shade
Sleepin' in the trap, I'm up before the morning raid
School of hard knocks, I was gettin' straight A's
Selling class A's
I should've known then 'cause when the cats called, you wouldn't even meet t hem halfway
Remember when you said you took a chase and threw the pack
And when I went back, I searched every bush and pathway
And even when I think about it makes my heart ache
You only hurt yourself when you fixed your last plate
Money made my man scheme, made my dog fake
Now I'm doing main stage like an arcade
'Cah we lit, but pussy, we ain't playin' no games
And if we're nicked, then pussy, we ain't sayin' no names

If I had a million pound
I'd probably put all my friends on and put the rest in the ground
If I had a million quid
I'd have to watch everyone around me, I seen bare snakes in my old vids
If I had a million cash
It wouldn't be enough, they're probably still gonna call me bruk
And if I had a million bucks
I'd throw it at my pagans and tell them pussies, "Go and buy guns"
If I had a million pound
I'd probably put all my friends on and put the rest in the ground
If I had a million quid
I'd have to watch everyone around me, I seen bare snakes in my old vids
If I had a million cash
It wouldn't be enough, they're probably still gonna call me bruk
And if I had a million bucks
I'd throw it at my pagans and tell them pussies, "Go and buy guns"
