

Life's just got me playing catch-up
I feel like French when they locked Max up
Looking in this mirror, I've got bad luck
I smashed that mirror, left my hand cut
Twelve want all of us in handcuffs
I miss my broskis off the camera
I get it in this booth, I get this mad rush
I'm smoking Dam, I'm living Basra
Remix that dub, abracadabra

And if you're talking money, that sounds great
And I'm nice with this shit, I translate
I'm just tryna make sure my fam straight, you damn straight
For real how long can a man wait?
If you knew his pain, my sky's always blueish-grey
And you've probably been through it the same so you do it same
How'd the judge give him life? Never knew his name
Cause they drew him out and he never really knew his worth
So we're out tryna do 'em first, that's just how it works
Me, I'm tryna get up in the newest Merc
All they do is hate, all I do is grind, tryna make this work
I'm just tryna make this work

Life's just got me playing catch-up
I feel like French when they locked Max up
Looking in this mirror, I've got bad luck
I smashed that mirror, left my hand cut
Twelve want all of us in handcuffs
I miss my broskis off the camera
I get it in this booth, I get this mad rush
I'm smoking Dam, I'm living Basra

My homie's looking twenty-five
I've seen this episode too many times
This shit ain't right, I swear I never cry
Desensitised until you're dead inside
I miss my broskis off the camera
Real ish, no lies, I'm being genuine
I miss my broskis off the camera
Real ish, no lies, I'm being genuine
All they've got is time

Life's just got me playing catch-up
I feel like French when they locked Max up
Looking in this mirror, I've got bad luck
I smashed that mirror, left my hand cut
Twelve want all of us in handcuffs
